

Sloth Poem! (for Maddie)

sometimes
all i want to do is hang down from a tree branch with my long curved claws (that i don't actually have)

dug into the wood

so i don't even have to hang on there i'd be all day long

once in a while reaching over from my hang-place to grab a nice tender leaf to munch

not a care in the world
no stress
no hurry
no homework

doesn't that sound sweet?
it does to me
so if you're looking for just try
the nearest branch
